Park Reports: Managers:

Hoover Park – Picnic tables will be delivered here and tether ball is in

Wm. P. Thompson Pond (40th Street) – Pavilions require some maintenance, Montalvo looking into roofers

Lion's Den – Wooden pillars are rotting, need to look at pavilion roofing and the driveway near the gate needs some attention. Gates should probably be locked nightly and porta john has been changed out.

Memorial Park – Speed bumps are in, posts for gates at the diamonds started. Soccer folks need addressed again regarding speeders.

Park Reports: Commissioners:

Memorial Park – Martin/Montalvo – Speed bumps in and barrels still in use.

Wm. P. Thompson Pond (40th Street) – Glombowski – Needs old picnic table removed yet when new one comes, Montalvo looking into roofers

Lion's Den – Martin/Montalvo – Look into gates being locked daily

Hoover – Caplinger – Report turned. Jacobs- Looks nice with the new wood chips around equipment.

Board Correspondence:

Recreation Board Correspondence:

- In collaboration with Blue Water Community Action, Farmer Market has started in Port Huron Township. Market is 4 pm to 7 pm every Thursday until October in the west parking lot of Blue Water Community Action Facility (3403 Lapeer Rd.).
- Veronica Caplinger discussed Townships 200th year anniversary in 2027 and Townships Endowment Fund 2026. We are looking to complete the fundraising by the end of this year.
